

NOA's Outsourcing Professional Awards winners' announcement

The NOA's Outsourcing Professional Awards took place last night (4th September) at the iconic Shakespeare's Globe Theatre in London. The glittering evening was a celebration of the individuals and teams that add significant value to their companies, their partners and the global outsourcing industry. It also marked our annual Summer Party.

Chris Halward, Director of Professional Development at the National Outsourcing Association (NOA) said:

"The Outsourcing Professional Awards was an outstanding event highlighting the best in outsourcing. I was delighted to see the variety of organisations represented and how well they networked and their willingness to share learning and experience. The Awards showed the immense depth and range of talent and capability in the outsourcing industry. The evening also saw the launch of the new NOA Level 2 Award in Outsourcing Excellence and the NOA CPD system demonstrating that outsourcing has properly emerged as a mainstream profession."
